LEADERSHIP: Statement of Continued Support by the Chief Executive Officer

To our Stakeholders:

I am pleased to confirm that Pathologists Lancet Kenya reaffirms its support of:

☐ The Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact for corporate responsibility in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption; and / or

☐ The principles of the Code of Ethics for Business in Kenya, for corporate responsibility relating to our organisation, our shareholders and investors, our products and services, our suppliers, contractors and agents, our society, our state and government, and our natural environment.

In this annual Communication on Progress, we describe our actions to continually improve the integration of the above standards into our business strategy, culture and daily operations. We also commit to share this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Ahmed Kalebi

Human Rights Current

Description of the relevance of human rights for the company (i.e. human rights risk-assessment). Description of policies, public commitments and company goals on Human Rights.

Our values define who we are, with a code of conduct that guides us in achieving the standards set for our business through respect and support for human rights.

A brief description of our Processes or Systems

- It is our responsibility as an organization to support a successful and sustainable society through giving quality and credible services.
- Any form of bribery is highly prohibited. No reports are altered under any circumstance; we have highly automated systems that ensure no illegal alterations are made as well as a team of well trained and disciplined staff.
- No external factor outlaws the ethics, integrity and reputation of PLK which is geared towards providing quality services to anyone who walks to our facilities.
We are very keen on the wellbeing of our staff that is given the necessary vaccinations before starting work. An example of this is the Hepatitis B vaccine among others and also health checks. During the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, all members of staff were tested and given clear guidelines on how to keep safe and reduce chances of infections at the workplace. Protective gears were also provided to all members of staff handling patients.

- The company has also ensured all its employees and their dependents have a medical cover.
- The employees are given frequent trainings on first aid as well as other emergencies like fire.
- At PLK, employees are allowed to express themselves in terms of their religious beliefs and the necessary support is provided.
- There are guidelines to ensure fair resolution of disputes
- Manuals have been made available to all staff on sexual harassment
- PLK has various fee schedules catering for both high end clientele and the low income earning. The company also ensures transparent pricing which is in line with government regulations.
- There is a code of conduct enforcing employee integrity
- Zero tolerance to child labor
- We also have a human rights policy in policy that addresses the following issues; Safety, Health and work place security, Forced and Child Labor, Engagement with third parties, Working Hours and Wages, Sexual Harassment, Equality, Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining, Maternity Protection, Non-discrimination, Guidance and Reporting
- The company has also been in the forefront in the fight against COVID-19 through carrying out COVID-19 tests in our labs, after which we received the Our ISO15189 accreditation for COVID-19.
- Providing mass awareness and educative insights into the disease through our social media platforms.

Implementation
Description of concrete actions to implement Human Rights policies, reduce Human Rights risks and respond to Human Rights violations.

- Drafting a Human rights policy, distributing it to all employees, training employees and carrying out an annual risk assessment on the policy
- suggestion box, call centre or grievance mechanism
- Awareness raising or training of employees on Human Rights
- Consultation with stakeholders and affected parties
- Allocation of responsibilities for the protection of Human Rights within your company
- Human resource policies and procedures supporting Human Rights
- Carrying out OSHA audits annually

Measurement of outcomes
How the company monitors and evaluates performance

- We ensure that our clients both internal and external have their right of expression exercised through:
  - We have questionnaires that are accessible at our reception areas
  - We have hotlines where our clients or anyone can call and get assisted
  - We also have suggestion boxes and all these are reviewed and implemented accordingly.
We also have a whistle blowing platform (email) where employees can share their sentiments.

- We also ensure that our clients and suppliers understand and appreciate our commitment to protect and respect human rights by sharing our human rights policy and explaining it to them. The policy is also easily accessible on the company website.
- The company has also taken up an initiative to ensure their staff have access to affordable housing options by supporting the staff who are members of the Lancet Housing Co-operative society.
- Our procurement policies and procedures also ensure protection of human rights.

Through these suggestions we are able to measure the outcome. We also plan on carrying out annual risk assessments in the future.

Commitment

Pathologist Lancet Kenya Limited is committed to upholding the two principles by protecting, respecting and promoting human rights practices. We acknowledge and uphold the right to life, education, development, security, expression among others. The company is fully committed to the principles of equal opportunities/equality and diversity in the workplace and regards personal harassment as a discriminatory and unacceptable form of behavior.

Systems and Activities

- Grievance procedure - Available
- Discrimination on grounds of race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age... Our human rights specifically addresses these issues.
- The disciplinary procedure - A well documented procedure foreseen by a disciplinary committee giving all parties a right to be heard.
